

Sommelier Selections

Great new finds I think you'll really like....

Rosé

Domaine Michel Thomas et Fils, Sancerre 2023

Gorgeous rosé of pinot noir, from a region most closely associated with bright, friendly dry whites. Super aromatic with the most charming bouquet of strawberries and raspberries, hints of orange and lemon, and a minerally mouthwatering chalky dry finish. #675 $60

Whites

Setzer, "Ried Kirchengarten," Reserve, Grüner Veltliner, Austria 2017

This family-owned winery was founded in 1705 and remains one of the oldest continuously run estates in the Weinviertel region. These high elevation vineyards are sustainably grown, without the use of chemical fertilizers and herbicides. There is something deep and soulful about maturing Grüner, the fruits round out as the body becomes more lush, the flavors content to harmonize cerebrally, yet the finish still dazzles with salinity and lively acidity. Notes of golden apples and pears, candied ginger and hints of white pepper mingle through the long, balanced finish. #612 $65

Domaine des Pierres Sèches, Saint-Joseph, Rhône 2021

Pure Roussanne from steep granite slopes, this gorgeous white greets with bright tropical guava, pineapple and papaya notes. The mouthfeel is vibrant with salinity and freshness, weight and richness with precision. This is a real showstopper. #322 $95

Reds

Château d'Issan, "Moulin d'Issan," Bordeaux Supérieur 2020

This third wine from Margaux powerhouse Château d'Issan is brimming with dark fruits, fresh cut herbs, and damp earth on a supple, juicy frame. It is medium-bodied and savory, with fine, gentle tannins framing the finish. From the exceptional 2020 vintage, this blend of Merlot & Cabernet Sauvignon is already drinking beautifully and is an exceptional value red Bordeaux. #1A $65

Fortemasso, Castelletto, Barolo 2015

Located in the heart of Monforte d'Alba in the Langhe region of Piedmont, Fortemasso's philosophy is guided by extreme attention to the vineyard and a light hand in the cellar, resulting in wines of purity, freshness, class and elegance. This Barolo exhibits fine depth of flavor and complexity, with roses, violets, red fruits and hints of anise mingling in the bouquet and on the palate. There's such a primary brightness to the fruit that one would not suspect the wine is nearly 10 years old, but the once grippy tannins are now softening and the finish smolders with impressions of crushed rocks and iron. #148 $125

FANTASTIC OFF-THE-BEATEN-PATH WHITES

- 341 VIOGNIER, YALUMBA, "SAMUEL'S GARDEN COLLECTION," EDEN VALLEY, AUSTRALIA 2017...$50
This dynamic expression of Viognier starts with ripe with notes of tangerine, honeycomb and orange blossom. Oily and viscous on the palate, peach bomb and spicy ginger aromas and flavors emerge. A seductive wine that has fine weight and a long, balanced finish.
- 635 MUSCADET, CHÂTEAU L'OISELINIÈRE, SÈVRE ET MAINÉ, LOIRE VALLEY, FRANCE 2020...$55
The vineyards here go back to 1337 and the first mention of Muscadet appears in 1653, making it the oldest producer in the region. This is undoubtedly a fresh wine but it presents an intriguingly complex and intricate aromatic quality. Apricot, fresh melon, green apple, lemon zest, floral elements, minerality and slight salinity emerge on the nose with the same qualities replayed on the palate and into a long, pleasing finish. This is an ideal seafood wine.
- 388 WEISSBURGUNDER (PINOT BLANC), DÖNNHOFF, TROCKEN, NAHE, GERMANY 2021...$60
This gorgeous, dry white dazzles with vivid notes of tree fruits, citrus, and stony minerality. There's ample weight, fine cut, and clean, focused flavors.
A fabulous accompaniment to any meal.
- 312 GRAUBURGUNDER (PINOT GRIGIO), DÖNNHOFF, TROCKEN, NAHE, GERMANY 2021...$60
Similar notes, but brighter, crisper and more minerally than the Weissburgunder, this is Pinot Grigio on a level rarely achieved in Italy. Floral with clean citrus and a zippy finish. Light bodied, refreshing and simply delicious!
- 609 ROTER VELTLINER, SETZER, "SYMPHONIKER," NIEDERÖSTERREICH, AUSTRIA 2021...$60
This ancient and obscure Austrian grape (less than 500 acres exist in the world) delivers aromas and flavors of meadow flowers, spring peaches, hints of almonds and minerals. Bone dry, bright and fruity with lively acidity and a clean finish, this is wonderful with oysters, salads, and simple fish dishes.
- 327 SEMILLON/SAUVIGNON BLANC, BLANC SEC DE SUDUIRAUT, BORDEAUX 2020...$60
Creamy, expansive and very pretty, all of which make it a real delight to taste. Pear, almond, dried flowers and mint build effortlessly in the glass. Delicious and enticing.
- 322 ROUSSANNE, DOMAINE DES PIERRES SÈCHES, SAINT-JOSEPH, RHÔNE, FRANCE 2021...$95
Pure Roussanne from steep granite slopes, this gorgeous white greets with bright tropical guava, pineapple and papaya notes. The mouthfeel is vibrant with salinity and freshness, weight and richness with precision. This is a real showstopper.
- 368 GEWÜRZTRAMINER, ZIND-HUMBRECHT, "HERRENWEG DE TURCKHEIM," ALSACE, FRANCE 2005...$150
This single vineyard wine really shows its pedigree, with deep notes of lychee, rose petal, grapefruit, white peaches, white pepper & subtle spices. There's lovely purity and ripeness of fruit with finesse & balance.

ROTHMANN'S EXCLUSIVE !

Nestled between Châteaux Latour and Pichon Baron in Pauillac, in what can only be called some of the most prime wine real estate in the world, Château Pichon Longueville Comtesse de Lalande.

The origins of Château Pichon Lalande can be traced to the late 17th century when Pierre de Mazure de Rauzan, a prominent Bordeaux winemaker, acquired extensive vineyard holdings in Pauillac. Rauzan's vineyards were divided among his descendants, and in 1689, his daughter, Thérèse, married Jacques de Pichon Longueville, giving rise to the estate's name. In the mid-19th century, Virginie de Pichon Longueville, known as the "Queen of the Vineyards," inherited the estate and married Count Henri de Lalande. It was during this time that the estate became known as Château Pichon Longueville Comtesse de Lalande, combining the family names.

This unique vertical came from their cellar to ours, one bottle from each vintage, guaranteeing impeccable provenance and quality.
